Father Jim's Thoughts for the week...

A Prayer to turn over my thoughts to the Lord

O Saint Joseph, Protector of the Holy Church, teach me how to know our Lord.

Lord Jesus, you are the one who sees all things, I am the one who does not.

Today has been a/an _____ type of day for me (Stressful, average, joyful). The way I feel about today is _____. I believe the reason for this is _____. Lord, I now turn over my feelings about this day to you. Lord Jesus, have mercy on me, a sinner.

Please accept my intercessory prayers now for these people in need:

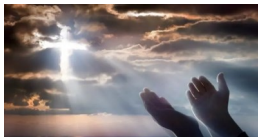

Grant your Holy Spirit's assistance to: _____

Give your healing power to: _____

Grant mercy to these people who have died, that they may see you face to Face in Heaven:

_____

O Blessed Mother Mary, ever virgin, most beautiful; Please pray for me to be granted these favors I ask for tomorrow, from your Son, in accordance with His Divine Will.

Psalm 85:8

"Show us, Lord, your Love; Grant us your salvation."

Children's Liturgy of the Word Corner

Third Sunday in Ordinary Time: Jonah 3:1-5, 10; Psalm 25; Mark 1:14-20

Prayer of the Day: God, you are ready to forgive us whenever we do wrong. Give us the courage to be sorry for our faults and so open up our hearts to your love. We ask you this through Jesus, the Lord.

The readings today from Jonah and Mark have a common thread. Both share the same message that we are to repent and believe. God tells Jonah to travel to Ninevah with the message the city will be destroyed in 40 days if the people did not repent (repent means to be sorry for anything you did wrong and try not to do it again). Amazingly, the very first day the people there believed Jonah and started to fast and do penance since they were truly sorry for all the wrong they had done. God kept his promise and did not destroy the city. Mark's gospel is similar except Jesus is the one doing the calling. As Jesus calls to Simon, Andrew, James and John, he tells them to leave their boats and follow him. He proclaimed the Good News to the people by saying: "The time you have been waiting for has come! Change your lives and believe in the Good News!" What does that mean to change our lives and follow the good news? It means we need to do what is right and follow Jesus example. Was it always easy for Jesus to do what was right? No. But, He did it because he knew it was what God the Father expected of Him as well as all of us. However, when we slip up, remember we can always go to confession and ask for forgiveness and start over. Jesus always loves us and forgives us.

MASS INTENTION REQUESTS FOR THE YEAR 2024

Limited Mass requests are being accepted for the Year 2024. Again this year, your understanding and cooperation in scheduling Mass intentions is requested. Please note, currently we are asking that you please limit requests to 1 - 2 Masses for the time being. If you know your loved one has numerous unsatisfied Mass requests, we ask you hold off sending anymore in until a later time. After reading the information below, please call the parish office at 724-254-3041 if you have any questions.

1. We will do our best to accommodate Mass intentions. If we cannot find an immediate opening or the date you requested, the Mass will be placed in the Mass book and satisfied on a rotating basis and may be sent to a different site than requested within the parish.
2. To avoid any confusion or misunderstandings, any Mass requests are being accepted only in writing. Requests cannot be accepted over the telephone. Please complete the form below and return to the parish office by the collection basket, the mail, or bring it in person. The offering ($10.00) for each intention is to be submitted with the Mass request.

MASS INTENTIONS CANNOT BE ACCEPTED FOR THE FOLLOWING DATES:

Easter (March 30/31);
Mother's Day (May 11/12); Father's Day (June 15/16); All Souls Day (November 2) and Christmas (December 24/25)

ATTENTION ALL WOMEN

We are getting ready to start a new Bible study in February! We have had feedback that Tuesday morning from 9 - 11 AM is not a good time for some, so we are thinking about adding an afternoon session on Tuesdays from 1 - 3 PM if there is enough interest. The study will start Tuesday February 13th (before Lent starts) and wraps up on March 19th (before Easter).

The February Bible study is entitled Reclaiming Friendship which explores God's plan to help us make authentic connections with other women. If you would like to join this Bible study, please contact Sandy Black at 724-479-3679 or sandyblack@verizon.net, or Marie Kirsch at 724-254-3041 or mhkirsch@dioceseofgreensburg.org. Also, please include which session you would be attending so we can plan accordingly.

All are welcome. Everyone is at a different stage in their life, but in this group, we strive to meet women where they are in their lives. So, come as you are and see where we can go together in "reclaiming friendships" and starting new ones. Please let us know by January 31st if you are able to join us so we know how many books to order ($20 cost). Looking forward to see who will join us this time.
